

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Westhills Village Retirement Community is a nonprofit, ecumenical continuing care community, providing gracious and secure retirement living in a pleasant environment at a reasonable cost; and,

Whereas, Westhills believes its residents should use their talents fully, live their lives richly, and make the best of the years God has given them; and,

Whereas, Westhills is the only retirement community that offers choices for independent, retirement living, assisted living, and health care services in western South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Westhills continues to be innovative in providing a unique and rewarding lifestyle, and maintains the highest standards which encourage a meaningful and comfortable living with privacy and dignity; and,

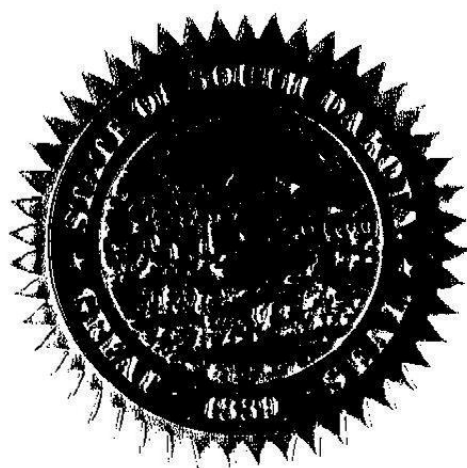

Whereas, Westhills continues to be a leader in assessing the retirement and health care needs of the community of Rapid City and the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as governor to recognize and congratulate Westhills Village Retirement Community for 25 years of ministering to the physical, mental, social, and spiritual requirements of senior citizens:

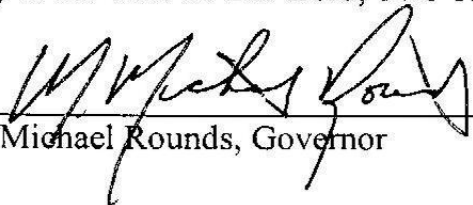

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 30, 2009, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirteenth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Nine.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
